

Report of Independent Accountants

We have examined management's assertion, included in the accompanying "Report of Management on Compliance with the Federal Communications Commission's ("FCC") Third Payphone Order," that Global Crossing Telecommunications, Inc. ("Global Crossing" or the "Company") complied with the requirements set forth in Appendix C of the FCC's Report and Order 03-235¹ (the "Order") for the period July 1, 2005 through June 15, 2006. Management is responsible for Global Crossing's compliance with those requirements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's assertion about Global Crossing's compliance based on our examination.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and, accordingly, included examining, on a test basis, evidence about the Company's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our examination does not provide a legal determination on the Company's compliance with specified requirements.

In our opinion, management's assertion that Global Crossing complied with the aforementioned requirements for the period July 1, 2005 through June 15, 2006 is fairly stated, in all material respects.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of Global Crossing and all other parties specified in the Order and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Report of Management on Compliance

With the Federal Communications Commission's Third Payphone Order¹

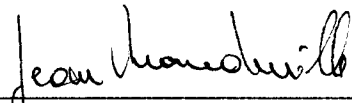

Management of Global Crossing Telecommunications, Inc. ("Global Crossing") is responsible for complying with the requirements set forth in the Federal Communications Commission's 03-235 ("Third Payphone Order"). Management also is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the Third Payphone Order. Management has performed an evaluation of the Global Crossing's compliance with the requirements set forth in Appendix C of the Third Payphone Order, including those described below for the period July 1, 2005 through June 15, 2006. Based on this evaluation, we assert that for the period July 1, 2005 through June 15, 2006, Global Crossing complied with the requirements set forth in the Third Payphone Order.

No material changes have occurred concerning Global Crossing's compliance with the criteria² of the prior year's Report of Management on Compliance with the Federal Communications Commission's Third Payphone Order dated June 25, 2005.

Exhibit A

Compliance Requirements Covered in the Payphone Audit

The requirements that were covered in the Payphone Audit are contained in CC Docket No. 92-128, Appendix C - Final Rules, under 64.1320 Payphone Call Tracking System Audits, of the FCC rules and regulations. Below is a listing of those requirements.

The following criteria will be audited to ensure the switch-based reseller (SBR) is in compliance with the order:

(c) The Completing Carrier must comply with, and the third-party auditor must verify, the Completing Carrier's compliance with the following factors in establishing a call tracking system pursuant to section 64.1310(a)(1):

- (1) Whether the Completing Carrier's procedures accurately track calls to completion;
- (2) Whether the Completing Carrier has a person or persons responsible for tracking, compensating, and resolving disputes concerning payphone completed calls;
- (3) Whether the Completing Carrier has effective data monitoring procedures;
- (4) Whether the Completing Carrier adheres to established protocols to ensure that any software, personnel or any other network changes do not adversely affect its payphone call tracking ability;
- (5) Whether the Completing Carrier has created a compensable payphone call file by matching call detail records against payphone identifiers;
- (6) Whether the Completing Carrier has procedures to incorporate call data into required reports;
- (7) Whether the Completing Carrier has implemented procedures and controls needed to resolve payphone compensation disputes;
- (8) Whether the independent third-party auditor can test all critical controls and procedures to verify that errors are insubstantial; and
- (9) Whether the Completing Carriers has in place adequate and effective business rules for implementing and paying payphone compensation, including rules used to:
 - (i) identify calls originated from payphones;
 - (ii) identify compensable payphone calls;

- (iii) identify incomplete or otherwise noncompensable calls; and
- (iv) determine the identities of the payphone service providers to which the Completing Carrier owes compensation.
